CITY COUNCIL

A Brief Session

There was little business to dispose of at the Council meeting held on Tuesday night, and the session was short. The members present were the Mayor and Aids, Cox, Jones and Leckie.

The report of the Pound-keeper for September was received as follows:—

Date	Name	Stock	Fees Col.
Sept. 12	R. Goldie	5 horses	$5.00
" 22	H. Lock	2 horses	2.00
" 23	J. Casorso	2 cows	2.00
" 24	C. Thompson	2 horses	2.00
" 24	J. Casorso	2 horses	2.00

$13.00

The Mayor stated that the annual convention of the B. C. Union of Municipalities would be held at Salmon Arm on Nov. 10th. The city was entitled to send two delegates, on the basis of the annual subscription of $10.00, and he recommended that delegates be appointed, owing to the importance of bringing before the convention the need of legislation in regard to civic control of irrigation. Ald. Jones and himself had constituted themselves an informal committee to investigate the question in order to obtain information for submission to the government.

Ald. Cox asked as to the expenses of sending delegates, and the Mayor replied that two years ago he had paid his own expenses when a delegate, but the city was larger now.

Ald. Leckie jocularly remarked that he would move that the Mayor do the same as he had done two years ago.

On motion of Ald. Cox and Leckie, the Mayor and Ald. Jones were appointed as delegates to the convention.

A plan of a sub-division submitted by Mr. Stanley Wright, being a portion of Block 3, Map 362, at Manhattan Beach, was found to conform to requirements, and was approved, on motion.

Council adjourned, to meet on Tuesday, Nov. 1st.

A Last Buffalo Hunt

To engage in the last great buffalo hunt of the world, a party of 15 sportsmen, headed by Howard Douglas, Dominion commissioner of parks, will leave Edmonton on Thursday morning, November 3rd, for the Flat-head hills of Montana. Michael Pablo, the Mexican owner of the big herd of 700 buffalo, which has been transferred to the Dominion Government, weary of the efforts to capture alive the 35 tough old outlaw bulls, which have caused all the trouble, and stamped the gathering of the herds, has decided to have them hunted. He has agreed to furnish any person wanting a buffalo with saddle, horses, guide and all necessary equipment, and to charge $250 for the buffalo. As the head alone is worth $500 and the hide $100 more, the offer of both adventure and profit has made a strong appeal to sportsmen. The buffalo hunt will be the last to take place in America. When the 35 head of outlaw bulls have been shot, the remaining 50 head, at large on the Montana plains, will be easily rounded up. All the buffalo in the world will then be in captivity, with the exception of the wood bison of the north, which are under the protection of the Dominion government and may not be hunted or killed.

Mrs. Henpeck—with newspaper—It says here that buttermilk will extend one's life to over a hundred.

Henpeck—wearily—If I was a bachelor, I'd take to drinking it.

NEW PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Dedication Ceremonies

In the presence of large congregations at every service, the fine new Presbyterian Church was opened for worship on Sunday. The pastor and congregation were favoured with the presence of Rev. Dr. Mackay, principal of Westminster Hall, Vancouver, whose eloquent and scholarly addresses were followed with deep attention by his hearers, and the clergy of other churches freely gave their assistance in a spirit of unsectarian brotherliness. A powerful choir of thirty voices, carefully trained by Mr. J. N. Thompson, rendered a number of anthems with splendid effect, ably accompanied by Mrs. F. G. Davis on the new organ, which is a fine instrument possessing sweetness and richness of tone together with a good measure of power.

The order of the Sunday services was as follows:—

MORNING WORSHIP—11 o'clock Doxology: "Praise God from Whom all blessings flow." Scripture Sentence and Invocation.

Psalm Selection: 74, vs. 1 to 4.
Scripture Reading.

Anthem: "Lift up your heads, O ye gates," (Messiah) Handel Prayer of Dedication, concluding with the Lord's Prayer in concert.

Hymn 469.

Sermon: Rev. Principal Mackay, D.D., from Gen. viii., 20: "And Noah builded an altar unto the Lord; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar."

Offertory and Organ Voluntary.
Anthem: "The Strain Upraise"—Sullivan.

Prayer.

Hymn 385.

Benediction.

CHILDREN'S SERVICE—3 o'clock.

Hymn 536.

Psalm 23, in concert.

Prayer.

Scripture Reading.

Offertory.

Violin Solo, selected, Miss Laidlaw.

Anthem: "Judge me, O God"—Mendelssohn.

Address: Rev. C. W. Whyte, Peachland.

Cornet Solo: "The Better Land"—Mr. J. N. Thompson.

Hymn 533.

Address: Rev. Principal Mackay, D.D.

Prayer.

Hymn 560.

Benediction.

EVENING WORSHIP—7-30 o'clock

Choral Invocation.

Psalm Selection 16

Prayer.

Anthem: "The Heavens are telling"—(Creation) Haydn.

Scripture Reading.

Duet and Chorus: "I waited for the Lord"—Mendelssohn.

Hymn 90, vs. 1, 2, 3, and 6.

Sermon: Rev. Principal Mackay, D.D., from Ps. cxxii., 1: "I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord."

Offertory and Organ Voluntary.

Anthem: "Hallelujah" (Messiah)—Handel.

Prayer.

Hymn 262, vs. 1, 3 and 5.

Benediction.

Vesper Hymn by the Choir.

The church was filled to overflowing at the evening service, the estimated attendance being well over 600—probably the largest number yet assembled at one time and in one place in Kelowna. A hundred chairs were provided in the aisles, but a number of people could find standing room only in the tower.

Rev. Dr. Mackay preached a masterly sermon, holding the rapt attention of his hearers with the history of worship from the earliest ages. Later, Rev. A. W. K. Herdman thanked most heartily the clergymen of other denominations who had materially assisted the success of the dedication by withdrawing services. In the Baptist Church, both morning and evening services were withdrawn as also was the evening service in the Methodist Church. The Methodist Sunday School showed its neighbourliness by marching in a body to the Presbyterian afternoon service. Mr. Herdman also thanked singers from the choirs of other churches who had voluntarily offered their services. He made touching reference to associations connected with the old church edifice and to those that have passed away, and he expressed the hope that the spire of the new church pointing heavenward would direct the souls of men on high.

The collections at the three services totalled nearly $600.

On Monday evening, supper was served by the ladies of the congregation in the old church to a large number of people, so large in fact that, while there was plenty of food, the work of serving was difficult owing to the crowded state of the building. The proceeds amounted to $171.

At 8 o'clock, a public meeting was held in the new church. Mr. G. E. Boyer occupied the chair, and was supported on either hand by Rev. Messrs. Hood, Summerland, Welch, Davidson, Herdman, of Kelowna.

Sir Thomas Sailed By.

In reply to the invitation from the Kelowna Board of Trade to visit the town and meet a delegation of the Board in regard to transportation matters, the president of the C. P.
R., Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, wired his regrets that time would permit of only a flying trip to Summerland, and the "Okanagan" accordingly went past Kelowna on Friday without calling. This gives Kelowna two bones to pick with the C. P. R.

First, for all that Kelowna is the most important shipping point on the lake and might therefore be reasonably supposed to be deserving of some notice by the president of the C. P. R., he has never yet made a call here.

Second, the C. P. R. could not furnish an excursion steamer last August for the regatta here and for that at Naramata, in order to accommodate hundreds of people who were thus debarred from enjoying a holiday. The plea was the rush of freight business, which would not permit of a boat to spare. Yet, while the freight business is still rushing and fruit is pouring out of Kelowna by car-loads and bargeloads, Sir Thomas calmly disorganizes the freight service in order to convey himself to inspect his private interests at Summerland. It is surely the height of absurdity for a railroad president who is supposed to have the interests of his company at heart to utilize the largest and best boat of the C. P. R. fleet for the transportation of himself and his corporate guard of attendant officials, and seriously inconvenience shippers and the general public, when the "York" or "Kaledon" would have been amply good enough for the purpose.

Our frank opinion is that railway officials put on entirely too much "dog" in this country, where the crying need for transportation exalts them to a position in the eyes of the public far higher than they are really entitled to. Better for the railway companies and better for the public if they would take a lesson from railway chairmen and directors in the Old Land and travel without ostentation and without any general upset of the regular service.

"The time to save is when you're young." "That's all right, but a fellow doesn't earn anything till he gets well along and then it costs more to live."

OKANAGAN MISSION NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. Gore-Browne has returned from his hunting expedition, which, we understand, was not unsuccessful.

The Okanagan Mission Supply Company have purchased the lot on which their store stands, from Mr. J. H.
Baillie.

Congratulations to Capt. and Mrs.
Ridley and also to Mr. and Mrs. L.
B. Simeon on the recent additions to their families.

Sport is looking up in this district as two five-pound fish have been caught and one or two deer have been killed recently.

Sunday, November 15th, is the probable date of the opening of the new church, which is rapidly approaching completion. The effect of the outside staining, now nearly complete, is very good and the strictures passed upon it when it was begun must now be withdrawn.

Mr. Hereron has again been inspecting the roads in the district, and we understand generous appor-tions will be made for extensive work in the spring. Meanwhile, a new road is being cut from the foot of Mr. Barney's ranch past the new creek ground to join the Gulch road leading to Mr. Monckton Case's and Mr. Jack Smith's ranches. There is a rumour to the effect that the wharf is to be repaired and lowered, and that an "L" is to be built on to it. In its present state it is anything but satisfactory to the users of it, some of whom say that when a steamer comes alongside, it has a distinct list to starboard.

A football match under Rugby rules was played here on Saturday last between the Okanagan Mission Sports Club and Kelowna and District, resulting in a victory for the latter by 2 goals or 10 points to 2 tries or 6 points. The home club won the toss and Mr. J. H. Thompson, who was acting as captain in the unavoidable absence of Mr. A. H. Bell, elected to play uphill but with the wind.
For the first half the play was practically all in Kelowna territory but the Kelowna defence was too strong, though if the passing among the home backs had been a little more accurate, it is possible that at least one try might have been scored.
As it was, half-time was called with no points scored. Shortly after resuming Mallam scored a try which J. H. Thompson in the teeth of a strong wind failed to convert. Following on some forward play, Mallam again got over the line but the kick was a very hard one and the try was not converted. Kelowna then assumed the aggressive and Innocent was two or three times forced to touch down. After three or four scrum almost on the goal line, D.
Lloyd got over for the visitors and Webb converted. The score was now 6 points to 5 in favour of the home team, and with only a minute or two left for play, it looked as if the Sports Club would win by the narrow margin of one point, but from a mistake by the Sports Club back, Graham got over the line and Webb converted. No side was immediately called, leaving Kelowna and District winners by 10 points to 6. Of the home side, Mallam stood out as away the best of the three-quarter line, where Bell was much missed. Bartholomew and Gore-Browne made an excellent pair of half-backs, and Fordham and Oake were prominent among the forwards. Okanagan Mission—A.
Innocent, back; H. C. Mallam, G. Osborn, J. H. Thompson, W. M. Thomson, three-quarters; Gore-Browne, R.
A. Bartholomew, half-backs; R. Fordham, A. Bevan, J. Thomson, — Binnie, — Oake, Rev. L. C. Wilkinson, A. N. Other, forwards. Kelowna and District—Webb, full back; Lloyd, Bennett, Feltmann, Mills, three-quarters; Meugens, Crease, Wilgess, half-backs; Pyman, Graham, Errington, Jones, A.
Stirling, P. Cameron, G. Stirling, forwards.

Summerland Congratulates

We heartily congratulate the citizens of our neighbouring town on the lake on the splendid display of fruit at the New Westminster fair.
Kelowna, the "Orchard City," carried off the highest awards, both for individual and district exhibits.— Review.

POOR FRUIT

On Hotel Tables

We have taken up on several occasions the matter of the harm done to the Okanagan by the practice of hotels buying cull fruit to place on their tables, with consequent formation of wrong impressions in the minds of visitors, and we are glad to see that the redoubtable "Bruce" of the "Saturday Sunset," refers to the same question in the series of articles he is writing descriptive of his journey through the Similkameen and Okanagan. The hotel men who are guilty of the practice are singularly blind to the hurt they are doing to their district as well as indirectly to their own business, and they pay little heed to local remonstrances, so perhaps what an outsider has to say may have more weight.

Thus saith "Bruce":

"Speaking of advertising, I am constrained to make a few remarks on this subject. They apply to the hotels in the Okanagan itself. Although this is the zenith of the apple harvest and both apples and pears are at their best, yet on no single hotel table in the valley have we met with fruit that was fit to eat yet alone fit to maintain the great reputation of that valley for these fruits. On the tables what fruit was to be had were mere culls, or wind-falls, ill-coloured, ill-flavoured and tough. A traveler who did not visit the packing-houses or orchards of the district would certainly form a very poor opinion of Okanagan fruit if he judged it all by the few miserable specimens which he would meet with in the Okanagan hotels. And the same thing may be said of vegetables. In a land teaming with garden products, where hundreds of acres of tomatoes are ripening in the fields, none were ever seen upon the tables of the Okanagan hotels. Canned peas, string beans and corn in a district where these vegetables are said to mature with a peerless flavour, were regular items on the bill of fare.

"At the C. P. R. hotel at Sicamous, 'Okanagan Fruits' figures on the bill of fare, and the sample which was served to me was a slander on the Valley. It would have been very much better to have left Okanagan out of the bill of fare entirely than to associate it with the miserable stuff served up to travellers under that name.

"Travellers passing through the country naturally form their impressions and base their judgment of its products by those with which they come in contact. If they meet with poor stuff they naturally can-say nothing good about it and there is little doubt that the fallacy which has been widely published, that Okanagan apples are inferior to Ontario fruit, has had its origin in the miserable stuff with which travellers have been served in British Columbia hotels.

"Okanagan hotels, in fact all hotels in all parts of the Province, would be doing their districts an inestimable service by seeing to it that only the best products of their district were served on their tables. By making a little effort in this direction they could establish not only a profitable reputation not only for themselves but for their districts."

Death of Mr. T. Hereron

Death came with suddenness to one of the old-timers of the valley in the person of Mr. Thomas Hereron, on Tuesday night. He had been in Kelowna, leaving for home about 5 o'- clock, and about three hours later was found by one of his daughters lying dead beside the road, about three-quarters of a mile from his house. Death evidently was instan-taneous, resulting from a broken neck, but there was no outward mark of injury except a slight scratch on the forehead. It is supposed that the draw-pin came out of the double-trees and that while Mr. Hereron was endeavouring to stop the horses by holding firmly to the reins, he was pulled over the dashboard and thrown on his head, sustaining the injury that immediately caused his death.

The deceased was about 48 years of age, and had resided for over twenty years in the valley, being the owner of a large quantity of land.
He is survived by his wife and several children and by his brother, Mr. M.
Hereron, road foreman, with all of whom deep sympathy is felt in their sad and sudden bereavement.

The funeral takes place, to-day.

BUSINESS STATIONERY

Too much stress cannot be laid upon the importance of sending out your correspondence in a manner that will create a good impression.

Do not save money by first attacking your business stationery.

Get The Best

The impression created by business stationery is lasting, and many a house has lost business owing to the fact that letterheads, billheads, statements, envelopes, business cards, etc., were got up in such a manner as to leave the receiver under the impression that such a concern was doing business in an attic.

Address, Rev. Mr. Hoopl.

Report by Chairman of Building Committee.

Address, Rev. Mr. Herdman.

Chorus, "Hallelujah Chorus," Choir.

Benediction.

The musical numbers were much enjoyed, the choir giving a very effective rendering of the choruses, and the instrumental and vocal solos were greatly appreciated. Mrs. Davis played the accompaniments on the organ with taste and sympathy.

Rev. Mr. Herdman intimated that, much to Dr. Mackay's regret, he had been compelled to leave that afternoon to fulfil an engagement to speak at an important meeting at Pentecost. An endeavour had been made to arrange for Dr. Mackay to speak at Pentecost the following night, so as to permit him to be with them that evening, but the change could not be made. Mr. Herdman also intimated that a cheque had been received from Hon. Price Ellison for $100 towards the building fund. He read a note from Rev. Mr. Greene, rector of St. Michael and All Angels, who stated that he had fully intended to be present together with Mrs. Greene, but the sad death of an intimate friend, Mrs. F. A. Taylor, had prevented. Mr. Greene concluded by extending all good wishes and hearty congratulations on completion of the new church.

The chairman expressed his appreciation of the honour done him by calling him to the chair, an honour he felt he did not deserve, as he had not done as much as others to build and equip the church. It was also an unexpected pleasure, as he had thought the church would have been completed several weeks ago, and he had to thank them and the builder for delaying completion until his return from England! He referred to his trip to the Old Country and to the religious and social conditions prevalent there, and said the impression he took back with him was that England was in a state of restless discontent, and in comparison, he thought that people here had much to be thankful for. He expressed his admiration of the architectural beauty of the new church, and went on to say that while in England he had listened to many eminent preachers, but from none had he derived more spiritual and intellectual stimulus than their worthy pastor, Mr. Herdman, of whom he spoke in terms of warm appreciation. He had also heard many choirs, but he would venture to say, none better than theirs at home.

Rev. D. J. Welch referred to the fact that, on the first day of his arrival in Kelowna, he had brought to the laying of the foundation stone of that church the congratulations of the Baptists of Kelowna, and he had pleasure in once more extending congratulations, now on its completion. He referred to the possibilities of church union, but said that for the time being the more feasible plan would be church co-operation rather than coalition. He concluded a brief but eloquent address by wishing the new church and the congregation God-speed.

Rev. J. W. Davidson said he bore the greetings of the Methodist people, but he regretted that it was so, as instead of the present sectarian divisions he wished that behind the erection of that splendid church had been united all the energies of the religious people of Kelowna. He hoped the day would yet come when all Christendom would be united. He had especially kind feelings for the Presbyterians, as his first memory of religious teaching was the Presbyterian catechism, taught him at his mother's knee, and he wished the church and people all manner of good.

Rev. Mr. Vance congratulated the pastor, the building committee and the congregation on the possession of such a splendid church, but he reminded them that a splendid church did not necessarily mean a strong congregation. The church must not be treated as an end but as a means to an end. He wished the congregation all success.

Rev. Mr. Thurburn Conn brought congratulations from the people of Okanagan Centre. He gave especial credit to the ladies of the congregation for the new church, which he regarded as due to their stimulating efforts. He spoke in terms of high praise of the leader of the choir, Mr. J. N. Thompson, and said the singing of the choir had been a treat to himself and his wife.

Rev. Mr. Hood, of Summerland, proved to be the humourist of the evening, and kept the audience in a continuous ripple of merriment. He opened by saying that he was Dr. Mackay for that night, as he had taken the Doctor's place on the programme. Rev. Mr. Herdman had come down to the boat to look for an apology for a minister and had found him. After the feast of theology yesterday and material good things in the old church that night, he would recommend the people to take a "horn spum" full of sarsaparilla before going to bed. He did not break the commandment by coveting his neighbour's wife, as he had a better wife at home, but he did covet his choir. Referring to the appreciative remarks of Mr. Boyer in regard to Mr. Herdman, he said the people of Summerland did not appreciate him, and he had thoughts of sending one of his elders to Scotland so as to learn by comparison. He extended the heartiest congratulations of the people of Summerland.

Mayor Sutherland, as chairman of the Building Committee, said that when he had been asked to make a few remarks, all he could think about was an apology for the church taking so long to complete, but after hearing the chairman express so much pleasure at being able to be present at its opening, he did not regret the delay. The cost of the building amounted to $15,500, and $3,500 more had been spent in fittings, etc., $1,000 of which had been provided by church organizations. $10,000 had been subscribed, and the balance of $3,000 had been raised by loan.

Rev. A. W. K. Herdman, in closing the proceedings, said he did not often have an opportunity to praise his congregation, but he now wished to thank them most heartily for their earnest work and self-sacrifice in building the new church. He also thanked his ministerial brethren for their assistance at the previous day's services and for their presence at that meeting and other congregations for their sympathy.

The audience then stood while the choir sang the "Hallelujah Chorus," and the meeting closed with the Benediction pronounced by Rev. Mr. Welch.

The Toronto Telegram, in a general roast of the N. L. U. clubs, hands out a lemon to the teams which have come west to do battle with the champion New Westminsters for the Minto Cup, claiming that there is not a team in the professional league that is really of first-class rank.

The Grand Forks Curling Association has decided to incorporate as a joint stock company, with a capital of $5,000, divided into 200 shares of $25 each. The Association will affiliate with the Kootenay Curling Association and will endeavour to bring the annual bonspiel of the latter to Grand Forks this winter.

Young Corbett has proved to be another of the one-time champions that cannot come back. Once the first of the lightweights, he was defeated on Thursday night, in New York, by Willie Birchler, the fight being stopped by the referee in the middle of the fourth round after Corbett had been knocked down twice and was reeling helplessly round the ring.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION

Weekly Practice

Curiously enough, as the season advances weather conditions for the purposes of rifle shooting seem to improve, and Thursday last was almost an ideal day for high scores, with clear, steady light and a gentle, if at times somewhat tricky, breeze. The interest taken in the sport by those who began to shoot late in the season is on the increase, and it seems a pity that there will likely be only one more practice this year, that to be held to-day.

The competition for the Dominion Salvor has taken a different turn, and whereas there was a good deal of uncertainty as to the winner, it is scarcely probable now that any one can defeat Mr. C. H. James' completed aggregate of 77, 80, 77, 76—310, although Mr. A. Eutin has a chance of overtaking him. For the Bronze Recruit's Medal, Mr. P. Reeve, of the K. L. O. section, leads with 64, 71, 81, 83—299, a very creditable progression in improvement from practice to practice, and his only dangerous rival is Mr. G. N. Kennedy.

The scores on Thursday were:

Ellison School Concert

(Contributed.)

A large crowd gathered in our school-house on Tuesday evening to take in the concert given by the pupils of Mr. J. Whittaker, and appeared to thoroughly enjoy the fine programme of vocal and instrumental music which was provided. Mr. Whittaker's pupils did him credit on this occasion, especially as regards the singing of some of the younger pupils and it should be an inducement for a greater number to join his singing class. Mr. Whittaker is an able, kindly teacher and should receive every encouragement.

Besides the splendid performance of master and pupils, several others kindly lent their talent to make the evening a success. Amongst the latter were Mrs. Heron, Messrs. Schwab, Groves and Smith, also Dr. Dickson and Mr. Goodrich. The ladies deserve thanks for the refreshments served, which was rather a difficult task owing to the building being inadequate to accommodate all that attended. Another such concert will be anxiously looked forward to in the near future.

Eastern racing associations have practically decided to eliminate book-makers on their tracks next year and to substitute the Paris mutual or totalisator system. The style of machines to be used has not yet been settled, but it is expected that they will be patterned after those at present in use in Kentucky. British Columbia will follow suit, officers of the B. C. Thoroughbred Association having stated that it is the intention of the Association to instal the totalisator system next year, all the necessary information having been obtained from Australia, where it is in vogue. By the system the public makes its own odds, and all the money wagered goes back to the bettors with the exception of the small percentage withheld by the club for operating expenses.

STARVING IN AFRICA

DR. KUMM'S GREAT JOURNEY ACROSS DARK CONTINENT.

Head of Soudan United Mission Returns From Remarkable Trip From the Niger to the Nile, In Which He Suffered Severe Hardships—Famished Followers Boiled and Ate Their Sleeping Mats.

Dr. Karl Kumm landed at Dover, Eng., the other day on the conclusion of one of the most interesting and important African journeys undertaken of late years. Dr. Kumm is the head of the Soudan United Mission, an organization whose staff consists largely of university graduates, with representatives from South Africa and America, and which has already established a line of posts through the less known parts of Nigeria bordering on the Central Soudan, and has penetrated as far into the interior of Africa as that region where British, French and German possessions meet on the edge of the Sahara.

Accompanied by a number of missionaries, who were to be left at the various stations en route, Dr. Kumm started on his great journey in the autumn of 1908. When, on the completion of his purely missionary work, he found himself 900 miles in the heart of Africa, he determined to push on through little known and entirely unexplored regions with the ultimate object of reaching the Nile.

Dr. Kumm summed up the results of his journey as follows:

The opening up of a new high road across the Soudan.
Obtaining valuable information about the frontier line between Islam and paganism.

Steps taken to intercept and cut off the last great high road for the slave traffic.

Dr. Kumm brings with him a fine collection of butterflies, many of them new, a mineral collection, plants and ethnological specimens, a new giraffe, a new buffalo, and specimens of gold, silver, tin, and copper, of the two forms of which he found considerable deposits.

In conversation with Reuter's representative, Dr. Kumm said the French warned him that he would not be allowed to pass through the country controlled by the Chief Sanussi, but he was.

"Sanussi," said Dr. Kumm, "is today doubtless the most powerful independent Central African chief, and is said to be inimical to Europeans.
A while ago a French Government expedition had been cut up by him, and two French traders had been killed a few months previously. I was receiving with every show of perfect friendliness. We were in severe straits, for I had lost all my oxen and also my best horses.

"Sanussi afforded me every assistance, provided me with an escort and carriers, and supplied me with food.
He is a dangerous man, and possesses a large number of modern rifles, probably several thousands. I had many interesting conversations with him, and found him to be intelligent and well informed. His palace is strongly fortified, and is situated at the head of a great and beautiful gorge in his capital town of Ndéli. Some of his people are troglodytes, living in the surrounding caves. Sanussi has devastated the whole country round for 200 miles, and one continually comes across ruined villages, the results of slave raiding.

"Possibly the worst experience of my journey was on the Kotto River, the main northern tributary of the Mo-banghi Congo. When I arrived on the bank of this river towards the end of the rainy season the stream was in full flood. The food supply for the two hundred people who were with me had come to an end, and for five terrible days and nights we were endeavoring to cross. We tried every means, and at last succeeded in getting everything over to an island in mid-stream by means of a bridge that we built of creepers.

"For twenty days we had been traversing a foodless country, and we knew that there was another ten days ahead before we could reach the first village in the Anglo-Egyptian Soudan.
One man had died of starvation and six of my followers had to be carried, as they were too weak to walk. All the carriers—men especially chosen for their physique and intelligence—were like walking skeletons.

"The position of one solitary European with two hundred dependents, including a number of old men and children belonging to the Mecca pigrims who were with me, was not an enviable one. Imagine, therefore, my feelings when, on getting to this island after a terrible period of work a sudden tornado, causing a great rise of the river, carried away our bridge and left us stranded. The river was fifteen to twenty feet deep, with a tremendous current running between the rocks. After a further period of anxious effort we finally managed to get another creeper bridge between the island and the opposite bank, and hauled the women and children to a place of safety.

"I found a most interesting pagan tribe named the Musgan, who inhabit the finest mud structures I have seen.
They are painted red and white, and sometimes quite 25 feet high, and remind one of diminutive fortified castles. The people are quite naked, and distend their upper and lower lips by inserting in them silver Maria Theresa dollars.

"After crossing the Kotto River, to which I have already alluded and post-humous desperate, came there was none, and it was heartrending to see women and children whose grey, wrinkled skin covered nothing but bones. The sunken eyes of the mothers, with their babies in their arms, became a nightmare.

"Antelope skins, which had been used as sleeping mats, were now boiled and eaten. Leaves and roots, containing practically no nourishment, were the only food supplies, and yet when we marched into Keffi Genji, the first Government post in the Anglo-Egyptian Soudan, I had only actually buried one man."

ROBBING RAILWAYS.

Tricks Travelers Try to Ride Free of Charge.

In these days of corridor-trains and traveling ticket-examiners, the railway "barker" to avoid detection, must be exceptionally daring and ingenious in his method of stealing a ride.

The railway companies woke up long ago to the old-fashioned dodge of the scamp, who faked the date of an antique return "half" when on his travels, or stowed himself away under the friendly shelter of a railway carriage seat.

Quite recently, though, on one of the northern lines, a defrauder of good position escaped prosecution and ex-posure only by the contribution of a large sum of money to one of the railway benevolent societies.

Being intimate with a friend who was a first-class contract ticket-holder, he had succeeded in obtaining a sight of it, carefully noting the number and other particulars.

He afterwards regularly traveled first-class, and when asked for his ticket he replied "Pass" or "Contract!" in matter-of-fact tones that baffled the ticket-examiners time after time. His impressive manner failed in a few instances, and he was gently but firmly asked to show the mysterious "Pass." Of course he could not produce it, and made some trivial excuse, treating the matter almost as a joke, usually saying he had forgotten it that morning when leaving home. When asked for his name and address he cheerfully, and without a moment's hesitation,
gave that of his friend.

Of course, the railway authorities on referring to their records and finding that Mr. So-and-So had been issued a contract-ticket of that number, made no further noise about it. Ultimately, however, the reports became so frequent that more stringent inquiries were made; the rightful owner was threatened with withdrawal of his contract. He indignantly denied any offense, and the railway company straightway laid a trap into which the bogus "pass-holder" fell headlong. Influence and good police position saved him from the police court, but it cost him a good round sum to square the deb.

Riding under a railway-carriage is not a safe or luxurious mode of travel, yet quite a short time ago a man was traged out more dead than alive from under a carriage at Peterborough on the arrival of a Great Northern express from London.

Crawling under the carriage, he had wrapped his jacket round one of the brake-rods, then climbed up on the gearing, entwined his arms firmly round the rods, and lain down, resting on iron bars. Wearing only a thin cotton shirt and well-ventilated trousers, the poor fellow had stiffened with the terrible draught sweeping under the train at express speed, and this alone had saved his life, for he became numb had his arms and hands become that all power to release his hold had left him, and only with great difficulty could he be removed from his precarious position. Sympathetic friends paid the fine which resulted from the railway's prosecution.

Another foolhardy attempt to defraud a railway company was that of a sailor who got stranded for lack of cash at Carlisle. Bound to join his ship at Glasgow, he nimbly mounted the iron steps at the rear of a corridor coach on a Caledonian express, and lay flat down on the roof between the clerestory top and the side ventilators on the off-side of the train. He was discovered on arrival at Glasgow in a semi-conscious condition. He must have hung on by the skin of his teeth to avoid being pitched off to instant death by the violent oscillation of the train during its journey.—Answers.

Mr. Asquith's Little Bill.

During his fifty-seven years, Mr. Asquith has not spent more than an average of four hours a year in bed through illness.

He bids fair, in this respect, to rival his political master, the G.O.M., who spotted the young barrister's ability, and raised him by one step into the Home Secretaryship.

Probably Mr. Asquith's good health is largely due to his capacity for innocent enjoyment. Once he went to the Earl's Court Exhibition with Mr.
Balfour, and the pair dashed down the water-chute together, and laughed heartily as they got drenched with spray.

When Mr. Asquith takes his holiday he rises early—he does not believe in late hours—and is engaged for several hours with his correspondence. If time permits, he takes part in a game of tennis, devotes the afternoon to quiet amusement, and goes early to bed. In fact, when Mr. Asquith makes holiday, he does it thoroughly.

Well Posted.

"Excuse me, ma'am," said the book canvasser to the lady who had opened the door in answer to his ring, "but if you have a few moments to spare I'd like to show you the great work on the 'Habits of Savage Animals.'"
"No use wasting your time, young man," replied the lady. "I've been married three times and know all about their habits."

THE TWO EPISODES OF ARTEMUS WARD

Artemus Ward (Charles Brookton Brown), was not only a humorist, but a philosopher and his humor often expresses more in a sentence than a philosopher could in an essay. By an absurd presentation he ridiculed absurdity, making his humor an effective weapon against those opponents whose doctrines needed only to be exposed to become ridiculous. His great strength, however, lay in his presentation of the common-place in his droll humorous way.
For example, there had been a recent arrival in Mr. Ward's home; friends were smoking his cigars and offering congratulations; a lady, wishing to preserve her formality, said, "Mr. Ward, this is quite an episode." "Yes," replied Mr. Ward,
"two episodes in fact: twins, marm, twins." There are "two episodes" in "A Bachelor's Honeymoon." Twins, marm, twins. Lively, laughing, loving twins. You laugh with them, you laugh at them, and at the bachelor; and when it is all over you want to take them with you, the twins in "A BACHELOR'S HONEY-MOON" at the Opera House, on November 3rd.—AD.

BEES! BEES!!

BEES are absolutely necessary to secure proper pollenisation of fruit, and every orchardist should provide himself with several hives, otherwise he is taking long chances on a shortage of crop. The best of soil, perfect conditions of climate and irrigation, vigorous trees avail little if the blossoms are not thoroughly fertilized, and this can only be thoroughly done through the agency of the honey bee. We have a number of choice hives for sale.

Local and Personal News

Miss C. Butler left on Tuesday for a visit to Qu'Appelle, Sask.

Dr. Gordon Hewitt, of Ottawa, was a visitor in town on Thursday.

Mr. R. A. Copeland returned on Saturday from a visit to the prairies.

Mr. J. Sewell went to Vancouver on Saturday to join Mr. DeHart's exhibition staff at the Apple Show.

MARRIED.—At the residence of Dr. Fraser, Vancouver, on October 12th, Mr. Neil McMillan and Miss Eva Dalem.

Mr. and Mrs. B. McDonald went to Vancouver yesterday for the Apple Show. Mr. McDonald got the exhibition carload of Jonathans safely away, and will be busily engaged until the show opens in arranging it to the best advantage.

A number of delegates from the local churches are attending the Sunday school convention at Vernon this week, including Rev. Mr. Ball, Mrs. A. W. K. Herdman and Miss Emma Rowe, from Knox Church S. S.; Mrs. McEachern, and Miss Renwick, from the Beavoulin Church; Rev. Mr. Welch, from the Baptist Church, and representatives, whose names we did not learn, from the Methodist Church.

Mr. A. Robertson arrived with his daughter, Miss Lydia, from Waterdown, Ont., on Monday, and will spend the winter here visiting his son-in-law, Mr. Chas. Harvey, C. E., and other relatives. Mr. Robertson is a crack rifle-shot, having visited England several times on the Canadian Biley team, and it is regrettable that he has arrived too late in the season to enjoy some practice on the local range.

Mr. J. S. Redmayne, an Englishman who performed the somewhat remarkable feat of writing a small book on fruit-growing in the dry belt, without having ever been in the province, was in town on Thursday acquiring some first-hand knowledge of the district. Considering the circumstances, under which it was written, the book is remarkably accurate in its facts, but Mr. Redmayne will no doubt improve on it at next edition.

The provincial organizer of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. Livingstone, will visit Kelowna this week, and on Friday afternoon, at 4.15, will address the public school children in the Presbyterian church. On Saturday, at 3 p.m., she will hold a parlour meeting at the home of Mrs. J. W. Jones, which all ladies are cordially invited to attend. On Sunday evening, after church service, a mass meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church, when Mrs. Livingstone will speak on Local Option.—Con.

A number of American Indians returning from hop-picking at the Coldstream Ranch passed through town on Friday, and the ferry had a busy time transporting them across the lake, 115 head of horses being handled. The Indians look quite a different type from our own aborigines, most of them being taller and heavier than B. C. Siwash, and their habit of wearing tall-crowned, wide-brimmed felt hats, long hair and gaudy ornaments of various kinds, makes the difference more accentuated. They advertised a pow-wow at the race-course while here, but there must have been a small attendance, as we have not met anyone who was there.

In acknowledging, under date of October 20th, two boxes of apples and a box of Louise Bonne de Jersey pears sent to him from New Westminster by Mr. A. E. Boyer, Mr. W. E. Scott, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, says: "Please accept my very best thanks for your kindness. I can assure you that they are very much appreciated both by myself and the family. The Gravensteins are particularly good. Friends of mine who have tasted them are enthusiastic about the quality of this fruit from Kelowna. The fruit I secured from you is now loaded on the "Empress of Ireland," and leaves for the Old Country to-morrow. I am sure it will prove a very strong advertisement for your district."

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Benson came up from Summerland yesterday.

Mr. G. C. Benmore returned from Summerland yesterday.

DIED.—At Dublin, Ireland, on the 22nd Oct., Maud, the wife of Mr. F. A. Taylor, of Kelowna.

Mr. F. Hill went to Vancouver on Monday to assist with the Kelowna exhibit at the National Apple Show.

Monday being Thanksgiving Day and a public holiday, the stores and other places of business will be closed all day.

Mr. John Conlin and Miss Conlin were passengers to Vancouver on Tuesday. Mr. Conlin will exhibit at the National Apple Show.

Mr. C. C. Chittenden, Phm. B. was a successful candidate at the recent examinations held in Vancouver by the B. C. Pharmaceutical Association, obtaining first-class honours.

There will be a Union Thanksgiving service in the Methodist Church, on Monday evening, at 8 p.m. Rev. D. J. Welch will preach. The offertory will be in aid of the Hospital. Con.

Mr. J. Gibb, accompanied by Mrs. Gibb, left yesterday for the National Apple Show at Vancouver, at the conclusion of which he will go on to Spokane to take up his duties as one of the judges at the American National Apple Show.

Remember! If you have paid road tax or a trade licence you have the right to vote at municipal elections, but it lies with yourself to make personal application for registration, otherwise you will not be registered. Deposit your declaration with the City Clerk before 5 p.m. on Tuesday.

Dr. Macnaughton and his wife, Dr. Maud Macnaughton, who had been spending a few days here, left for the Coast on Saturday to take the examinations for admission to medical practice in the province. Both of them possess British professional qualifications of high standing, and it is probable that they will return here before long and engage in practice.

The new bell of the Presbyterian Church was put into regular use for the first time on Sunday last. It is of lower pitch than the bell of St. Michael and All Angels, which has served for many years to call the faithful of all churches to worship, and has a sweet tone. It somewhat resembles the fire bell in sound, and its first trial last week gave some of the members of the Brigade quite a scare.

The car-load of exhibits collected by Mr. F. R. E. DeHart for the National Apple Show, including the district and two-two exhibits to be made by the Board of Trade, left for Vancouver on Thursday, and contrary to anticipation was not decorated with advertising banners, for the reason, as Mr. DeHart humorously put it, people, knowing the superlative quality of the fruit, might open the car and steal it. Mr. DeHart and one of his lieutenants, Mr. N. B. Lloyd, followed on Friday.

Register Now!

All persons who are not real estate owners, yet wish to be registered as municipal voters, should take note that they must lodge a statutory declaration with the City Clerk by November 1st, in order that they may be enrolled. Payment of road tax or a licence other than a dog licence, qualifies as a voter, but it is absolutely essential that the declaration be made and handed to the City Clerk, as such voters' names do not continue from year to year on the list, and a fresh declaration must be made each year. Men entitled to vote often grumble because their names are not on the list, but it is entirely their own fault if they are not registered. The necessary forms can be obtained from the City Clerk.

The Late Mrs. F. A. Taylor

The community received a startling and painful shock on Sunday on learning the sad news of the death of Mrs. F. A. Taylor, which occurred in Dublin, Ireland, on Saturday. The intelligence was conveyed in a cablegram to the Rev. Thos. Greene, and he made intimation of the mournful event in St. Michael and All Angels on Sunday, adapting the service to the occasion.

Beyond the fact of decease, no details are yet available as to the nature of Mrs. Taylor's illness. So far as her friends here know, she was enjoying good health and was visiting friends in Ireland before leaving for Kelowna.

Mrs. Taylor took a deep interest in the Kelowna Hospital, and consequently the work of the Ladies' Aid, by whom she will be much missed, but her benevolence extended much further in an unobtrusive way, and many of her deeds of kindness were known only by the recipients. Her qualities of heart and head endeared her to all the community, whose deepest sympathy goes out to the husband and four young children, so cruelly bereft of wife and mother.

Produce For Hospital

We are asked by the Secretary of the Hospital to state that donations of vegetables, fruit, dairy produce, eggs, etc., will be gratefully received at the Hospital. If more convenient any contributions may be left at the shop of the D. W. Crowley Co.,

NEWS OF THE PROVINCE

The Northern Crown Bank is opening a branch at Peachland.

A daily passenger train service has been inaugurated on the Nicola branch by the C. P. R.

The provincial balance sheet for the financial year ended March 31st last shows a splendid sum of $2,750,000 as a surplus.

Some Australian fruit will be on exhibition at the National Apple Show, a shipment having arrived by the s.s. Makura.

Grand Forks has exempted from payment of road tax all registered members of the Volunteer Fire Brigade.

The new freight slip at Summerland is now in service and the first cars to be delivered there were landed last week.

There were over 450 entries at the fruit, flower and vegetable show, held at Summerland last week, and the exhibition was pronounced a great success by all who visited it.

The miners employed by the Nicola Valley Coal & Coke Co. have subscribed $4,500 towards the establishment of a general hospital in the district.

Vancouver is suffering from the depredations of criminals of all classes, including forgers, sandbaggers, hold-ups and sneak thieves, and a thorough house-cleaning seems necessary.

Interviewed at Vancouver, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy denied that there is any truth in the report that the C. P. R. has bought or is contemplating the purchase of coal lands or mines on Vancouver island.

Hon. W. R. Ross, the new Minister of Lands, was re-elected on Saturday for the provincial riding of Fernie by a majority of 349 over J. W. Bennett, Socialist candidate. The vote stood—Ross 910, Bennett 561.

Hon. Jas. Dunsmuir has brought suit against Wm. Mackenzie, of Mackenzie & Mann, in connection with matters arising from the recent sale of the Dunsmuir collieries to Mr. Mackenzie. It is understood the sums involved aggregate nearly $1,000,000.

Over 2,000 men are now at the new free-milling camp on Steamboat Mountain, 40 miles south of Hope, which is the outfitting point. The mineralized belt is large, and assays are being obtained from $15 to $200 per ton. The formation is a quartz porphyry.

In deference to representations from the local board of trade and private citizens in regard to the plans of the new court house to be erected at Grand Forks, Hon. Thos. Taylor, Minister of Public Works, has agreed to the preparation of new plans and to again call for tenders, in order that the building may be entirely acceptable to the people of Grand Forks.

The winter time-table of the C. P. R. will come into effect on Oct. 30th, and the St. Paul-Seattle trains, with their connections to and from Mission Junction, will be discontinued. The rest of the train service east and west will be maintained, with some changes in times. No. 2 will continue to leave Vancouver at 9 a.m., while No. 96 will leave Vancouver at 3.45 instead of 7.30 p.m.. West-bound trains will arrive at Vancouver later than during the summer; No. 1 at 11 p.m. instead of 10.30 p.m., and No. 97 at 12.15 p.m. instead of 8 a.m.

The general colonization project in British Columbia initiated by Mr. Norton Griffiths, M.P., a millionaire English contractor, and British associates, is rapidly taking shape. Mr. S. E. Oliver, their special agent, has just paid into the provincial treasury a first payment of $45,000 on account of the purchase of 90,000 acres of agricultural lands in the Naas river valley, which extends to the west of the Skeena river valley. The land will be sold on easy terms to British agriculturists and the new settlers will be assisted in every way to get a good start in their new home.

NEWS OF THE DOMINION

The Calgary News, which drove the Eye Opener out of Calgary, has gone to smash. The excess of liabilities over assets amounts to $66,000.

Major Bruce Carruthers, the noted Canadian officer, who distinguished himself at the Hart's River engagement in the South African war, died on Friday at Kingston, Ont., after an illness of several months. He was 47 years of age.

The twin cities of Fort William and Port Arthur are seriously considering the feasibility of union. The united city would have a population of 50,000 and would make one of the largest shipping ports on the continent.

In a speech before the Empire Club, at Toronto, on Thursday, Hon. Clifford Sifton, chairman of the Commission on Conservation, announced that legislation would be introduced at the next session of the Dominion parliament to require railway companies to maintain efficient fire protection all along their lines.

The report of the superintendent of immigration for the year ending March 31st, 1910, which is embodied in the annual report of the department of the interior, shows that Ontario still leads in the number of immigrants received, with Alberta a close second. Returns by provinces are as follows—Ontario 46,129, Alberta 42,509, British Columbia 30,532, Saskatchewan 29,218, Quebec 28,524, Manitoba 21,049, Maritime provinces 10,644.

The appointment of 225 census commissioners will be begun very shortly by the Dominion government. One will be chosen for each electoral district of the country, and recommendations are now being considered. The commissioners will get a lump sum for expenses in proportion to the size of the constituency and a stated sum per head of the population. It is estimated that the cost of taking and compiling the census will amount to $1,000,000. A hundred and fifty extra clerks will be engaged for the compilation.

For the first half of the present fiscal year Canada's trade increased by nearly $56,000,000, or 18 per cent as compared with the corresponding six months from April to September inclusive last year. The half year trade totals $360,274,850, or over $66,000,000 more than the total annual trade of the Dominion when the first Fielding tariff came into force 13 years ago, the monthly increase averaging more than $9,000,000 over the record figures of last year. The customs revenue for the half year totalled $35,347,705, an increase over last year of $7,041,177.

H. M. C. S. Niobe, the pioneer ship of Canada's navy, reached Halifax on Friday after a rather rough passage of 11 days from Portsmouth, and was welcomed by Hon. L. P. Brodeur, Minister of Marine, and greeted with cheers by the soldiers and citizens on the docks and a salute from the citadel guns. The Niobe is a protected cruiser, carrying 16 6-inch guns and 28 smaller guns. She is of 11,000 tons displacement, and has engines of 6,500 h.p., giving a speed of 20.25 knots on her trials. The commander of the vessel is Captain William Balfour Macdonald, a son of Senator Macdonald, of Victoria, B. C.

At the Vernon Assizes last week, the two men, Walker and Chinley, on trial for the fourth time for causing the death of an Indian woman near Quesnel, were found not guilty by unanimous verdict of the jury. The men, who have had the unique experience of being under sentence of death, following their second trial, for the crime of which they have now been acquitted, owe their lives to the indefatigable efforts on their behalf of their counsel, Mr. Stuart Henderson, and to the recent establishment of a Court of Appeal in the Province, which ordered a new trial of the case.

Efforts are being made to organize a company to build a curling rink in Armstrong, and, although some success has been met with, the Advertiser complains that there is not the general support being received that the project merits.

NEWS OF THE WORLD

The Bank of England raised its discount rate, on Thursday, from 4 to 5 per cent in order to protect its reserve.

David B. Hill, a famous American politician who had been in his day a United States senator and governor of New York, died on Thursday at Albany, N. Y.

New gold fields have been discovered in the neighbourhood of Bullfinch, Western Australia. There is a tremendous rush to that district and reports of fabulous riches are reported.

King Manuel of Portugal and Queen Mother Amelie are now in England, having travelled from Gibraltar by the British royal yacht Victoria and Albert, and have taken up their residence at Wood Norton, Worcester-shire.

The date of the execution of Crippen, the wife murderer, as originally announced was Tuesday, November 15th, but according to a London dispatch the sheriff has shortened the interval by a week, and it will now take place on November 8th.

Luigi Luccheni, the Italian anarchist, who stabbed to death in 1898 Elizabeth, Empress of Austria, died by his own hand in prison at Geneva, Switzerland, last week. Two days before, he had gone violently insane, and after smashing everything in his cell was put in a strait jacket.

In a speech delivered at Ithaca, N. Y., on Thursday evening, Prof. E. H. Woodruff, of Cornell University, called Theodore Roosevelt "an unmitigated liar" while referring to the latter's denial that he had sent Bellamy Storer on a mission to the Vatican.

The raising of silkworms is to be undertaken on a large scale at Great River Long Island, a suburb of New York, by English capitalists. The United States government, through the department of agriculture, will go to unusual lengths to assist in making the enterprise a success.

Commander Robert E. Peary has been promoted to the rank of Captain in the U. S. navy through retirement, on account of the age limit, of a senior to him. Captain Peary is really not a sailor at all, but a civil engineer attached to the navy, and he is the only officer of that branch holding the rank of captain.

After a trial that lasted five days, Dr. Hawley H. Crippen was found guilty, on Saturday, at Old Bailey, London, of the murder of his wife, known on the stage as Belle Elmore. The jury was out only 30 minutes. Lord Alverstone pronounced sentence of death, execution to take place on November 15th. The trial of Ethel Clare Le Neve as accessory after the fact began on Tuesday.

The British Court has been plunged into mourning by the death of Prince Francis of Teck, brother of Queen Mary, which occurred on Saturday from pleurisy, for which he had recently undergone two operations. The Prince was 40 years of age, unmarried, and had served in the army, seeing active service during the Sudan campaign and the Boer War.

According to a despatch from Johannesburg, the Union government has ordered the recruitment of the volunteer South African force stopped apparently with a view to the formulation of a scheme of defence and a definite style of leaders' language. There is a movement urging the government to require words of command repeated in Dutch, otherwise Dutch people could not join the volunteer corps.

T. P. O'Connor, the famous Irish Home Ruler and lone Nationalist representative in the Imperial Parliament of an English constituency, has been visiting the Coast, and on Thursday was the personal guest of Premier McBride at Victoria, where he addressed the Canadian Club on the subject of "Home Rule All Round."
